Summary: After the final battle in the N-1 grand prix, Megaman sacrificed himself to save Protoman from an on coming attack. He then finds himself in a new body and new allies in a world where everything he knew is different. During a battle with a maverick, who has the ability to control time, sends our hero back into his original timeline at the time he meets Lan for the first time!

1. Chapter 1

Chapter 1

This was it, the final battle in the N-1 grand prixâ€‘ all the battles, the struggles, the hard work, lead up to this to see who would become champion. It was Lan and Chaud, and their net-navis, Megaman vs. Protoman. There was no holding back, and both did just that. Their battle with each other mysteriously caused the entire arena to slowly collapse as all the audience had to leave the building, leaving the battlers to continue their fight. The battle was intense as they showed destructive capabilities around them as they fought, both Lan and Chaud knew this fight must end now as they used their ultimate attack. The program advance lifesword. As used the power of the program advance, Megaman and Protoman clashed their swords causing more destruction around them. With one final clash, the whole area around them exploded creating beam of light shooting out of the arena, blinding everyone to not see who was left standing. Moments later, there was one who stood, it was Protoman and on the ground was Megaman. As the countdown began and ended, Chaud and Protoman were the victors of the tournament.

"Time's up! Megaman is down! The N-1 grand prix champion is Chaud and his partner Protoman!" Said the announcer.

"Megaman!" shouted Lan as he ran towards the glassed hologram.

"Megaman! Megaman!"

Megaman turned to his operator and said.

"I'm sorry Lan...I gave everything I had!"

"It's alright, I don't care about that! You did your best out there, you did great! Thank you Megaman...for everything."

Megaman slightly laughed.

"Heh, yeah I did. There's always next time, right?"

"Yeah, and that time we'll be stronger!" Said Lan.

"Yeah!"

Protoman walked up to Megaman and helped him stand up.

"Here Megaman, take my hand."

"Protoman!" said Megaman as he looked at Protoman's hand and stood up from the ground. "Thanks."

"Don't mention it. Ya know, every battle Chaud and I had been short until now, most of them don't even last long as you did. So from now on you are worthy of being my rival, that's if you're alright with that."

Megaman smiled once more and said.

"Your on."

Suddenly.

"Protoman! Watch out!" Shouted Megaman as he felt an attack coming towards them as he pushed Protoman out of the way. Only to feel a beam of energy shot through his chest.

Everybody stared in horror to what happened as they could do nothing but see Megaman's body disappear into data, and flash into the words 'deleted'. With one final look, Megaman's body slowly disappeared into nothing.

As Megaman started feel himself turning into nothing, he heard one last word from Lan. As he knew it was the last time he would hear his voice.

"MEGANMAN!"

â€|

â€|

â€|

"X?...X?...X!"

He opened his eyes and found himself what appeared to be a laboratory. He wondered how did he get here? And why? He then heard footsteps coming towards him and saw a man wearing a lab coat, his hair and beard were pure white as snow.

"Who are you?"

"I am Doctor Light. I created you X."

"X? You called me X. Is...Is that my name?"

Said 'X' as he saw his vision disappear and heard what the doctor said.

"That's right. It's a variable, it represents limitless potential. You see, you are a new type of robot who can think for himself."

With that, X heard nothing and felt his mind going blank as he thought to himself.

("X? Robot? Limitless potential? Just what is going on here? The lasting I remember was-")

"MEGAMAN!"

("Lanâ€|")

To be continued...

2. Chapter 2

Chapter 2

8 years, it has been 8 years since X, or rather, Megaman, has lived in this world as a Maverick Hunter along with his new friends, Zero and Axl. During all those years, he and the others have been at war with other mavericks who has been lead by their leader, Sigma, who has brought so much destruction around the world and to its people. But eventually he was defeated for good after their final battle on the moon, as well as the true master mind during their battle. With this victory, it marked the end of maverick wars, bringing peace between humans and reploids. At least they hoped. After the battle, there was barely any maverick activity going on since then. It gave most of the hunters who were rookies a chance to learn the ropes on how to fight against them, while the veterans took charge of the missions to make sure the rookies don't hurt themselves. As time passed on, not much has happened. But a lot has happened within the maverick Hunter base over the years as our hero's live on with their lives.

Location:Maverick Hunter base.

It's lunch time within the base and everybody was anxious to receive their food. Today is taco Tuesday, and everybody knew those tacos are the best! Luckily, X managed to get his first before everyone else. As he sat down to enjoy his meal, he heard a familiar voice.

"X!"

X turned and said.

"Zero, glad you got your tacos too."

"Well what can I say, it's taco Tuesday, and everybody loves tacos."

"Heh, no argument there." Said X as Zero he sat across from him ate their tacos.

As they ate, X noticed a silver ring on his left hand. He smiled and said.

"So, how the married life going on?"

Zero happily smiled and said.

"It's great! Layer and I have a very stable marriage, not that many people can have that."

"That's true."

"And it's all thanks to you X, if it wasn't for you this wouldn't possible."

"Glad I was able to support." Said X as he perfectly remember the days Zero started dating Layer.

Flashback

After the final battle with Sigma and Lumine, Zero and Layer suddenly started dating when the red reploid, ask the navigator to stay by his side to fight against Sigma on the moon. After that, they just hit it off. It was a big surprise and a disappointment to the most of the female hunters since they had their eyes on him before Layer arrived. X however was happy to find out his best friend finally someone to have a relationship with since Iris. Ever since her death by his hands, Zero was never the same. But now he's happy once again with Layer by his side, and navigates him on his missions to stay with him no matter the distance. What's funny was when they started dating, both had no knowledge on how to date. Luckily, both reploids had help with their friends as they told them what to do on dating and secretly spied on them to see their date go perfectly. As time went on, their relationship grew stronger than anyone expected. Until one dayâ€|

"X!"

"Zero, what's up?"

"Can I speak to you in private? It's really personal."

"Sure." Said X as he followed Zero in an empty hallway.

"Thanks for wanting to listen X, I really appreciate it. You're the only one who I can trust with this."

"I'm glad to help you whatever you need, what is it?"

"Well...you know everyone knows Layer and I have been dating for a very long time, and...I want to take it a further step forward."

Hearing this shocked X.

"Zero! You mean you want to-"

"Yeah...I want to marry Layer!"

"Zero this is great! You are doing something that will change both of your lives!" Said X as he gave Zero a big hug, Which Zero happily returned.

As they departed the hug, Zero said.

"Thanks, X. I knew I could trust you with this information."

"Glad to hear that, now Axl owes me that new street fighter game!"

"Wait, what?! You and Axl bet on me if I ever get married to Layer?!"

"Hey, he started the bet not me! Plus I knew this would happen eventually, and I'm glad it's actually happening!"

"Uh, thanks. I guess? But there's a snag."

"A snag? What is it? What happened?"

"A ring. I need a ring to seal the deal! The problem is that I don't think I could afford one!"

"Huh? But I thought-"

"I know! I know! But I used most my money on all of our dates just to make things perfect. I took on missions that I didn't want to take just to earn a bit extra."

"Such as?"

"Training the rookies, patrolling the city all night, staying late."

"That's not that bad."

"Try being a bodyguard to snotty rich kids who boss you around, doing a reality show in a episode where cameras follow you as you talk to them and patrol at the sametime, and being in a talk show as a special guest."

"Ok, that's bad."

"Yeah, but what kept me going was Layer. All I could think about was her, and say she is worth it. I would give anything just to be with her, even if I have to go to hell just to kill Sigma by myself."

"You really care about her don't you."

"You bet I am."

X Smiled once more as he knew Zeros words were nothing but the truth.

"If you truly mean that, follow me."

Feeling confused, Zero followed X into his room. As they entered, X opened a nearby table drawer, took out what appears to be a small box and gave it to Zero.

Feeling more confused, Zero said.

"X, what is it?"

"Open it up and find out."

Being curious, Zero opened the box and was shocked what was in it.

"X...this...this is a wedding ring! Where...where did you-"

"Let's just say I had some contacts before the war."

Zero looked at the ring once more and said.

"How could you-never mind. Most of the ring's materials here are very rare! The ring itself is real silver and the small diamond on top! You really had some good contacts indeed! Wait. If you have this ring, who was-"

"Ichi. The ring was suppose to be for Ichi."

"Oh, right. Her." Said Zero as she was the first Navigator they worked with since the start of the maverick war. He knew X and Ichi had a thing going on, but after the his first final battle with Sigma, Ichi didn't want to be part of any of this and ended their relationship and left to parts unknown.

"Don't worry about her, I got over it. It's been years you know. Plus I'm passing it you now. Give it to Layer, I'm sure she'll love it."

"X I...I don't know what to say."

"Just make me your best man, that's all I ask for."

Zero smiled and said.

"You got it."

Later that day, Zero finally proposed to Layer and it became the most happiest moment of their lives. Zero kept his promise to make X his best man and witnessed their wedding day gone perfectly.

End of flashback

"Hey guys! I see you got your tacos too!"

X and Zero turned and saw Axl with a tray of tacos.

"Axl, don't tell me you raided the kitchen as a chef just to get more tacos." Said Zero.

"What can I say? I love me some tacos!"

Zero faced palmed as he knew Axl would do something this stupid. Again. X however, slight laughed at Axl's actions as he was the youngest of the trio. He even had the responsibility to look after him when he went back on the field after witnessing his actions to fight red alert. He felt like a younger brother to him as they fight together, especially when he was critically damaged injured by Lumine. As they made it back home to Hunter base, Axls condition worsen when his body started to change into familiar colors. Risking his life, X volunteered to enter Axl's mind and find out what caused him to change. Surprisingly, Lumines attack on Axl left a piece of him inside him to finish off what he couldn't do. With no time waste, X charge into battle and with all his might and fought hard as he could. After a long tough battle, Lumine was finally defeated and Axl was safed. However, there was a slight side effect with Lumine erased within the young reploid. What was left of Lumines power inside Axl, increased his copy chip ability to copy any size now than that's equal to his size, and their power as well. This made Axl a great maverick Hunter than he was before, and prove he can be a dangerous foe against mavericks.

"Axl, sit down and enjoy your tacos." Said X.

"Right, sorry." Said Axl as he sat down and are his tacos.

After moment's of eating in silence, Zero's eyes were suddenly covered.

"Wha?!"

"Guess who?"

"Is it my one and only lovable wife?"

"That's right." Said Layer as she removed her hands from her husband's eyes.

"And her BFF'S! Said Palette as she appeared behind from Layer. Including one female reploid that X didn't want to see.

("Alia") Though X as he ignored her and the person next to her. Gate. The man who tried to frame Zero for causing the Sigma virus to affect the earth. Not only that, he even stole Alia from him when they almost had a relationship after he survived his wounds after their sixth battle with Sigma. X even tried to get close to Alia once again, but she pushed him away and ignored him. To be honest, when he first met Alia, she reminded him of Roll. Both had blonde hair and pink outfits. He missed Roll, both he and her definitely had a connection together, but they never showed it to each other. He just wish he told her before he died how much he felt about her. X snapped out of his thoughts and came back to reality, Layer sat next to her husband, Palette next to Axl, and Alia and Gate, next to him. As they sat and enjoyed their lunch, Gate spoke.

"Hard to believe that there's hardly any maverick activity since Sigmas destruction, it almost feels like the peace we have been fighting for is coming sooner than we thought."

"Yeah, hard to believe it's actually happening. If this keeps up, we might not fight anymore." Said Zero as Layer agreed to what he said.

"Meh it's kind of a shame really, I'm really going to miss all the action we'll have together." Said Axl.

"Yeah, that mean it's back to work at a desk job. And where's the fun in that?" Said Palette.

"That's fine by me I prefer research than working on the battlefield." Said Gate.

"And I'll be by your side, supporting you all the way." Said Alia as she placed her hand on Gates.

Seeing this made X clenched his fists tightly in anger as he hated seeing her doing this kind of thing in front him. It almost wanted him to go maverick, but he was smart enough to not to anything that stupid.

"So X, what do you think?" Said Axl.

"Huh?" Said X as he came out from his thoughts.

"I said what do you think about peace being brought back around the world now."

"Oh um, I think it's great! Just can't believe everything we accomplished is going to finally payoff."

"Yeah, I hate to see all of us go our separate way." Said Zero.

"But we'll be in touch right? I mean, you guys are like a family to since I left red alert. I don't want to see you guys do doing crazy without me, you need back up if it calls for it." Said Axl.

Hearing this cause everyone to laugh. But Axls words were true, they did great each other like family. They've been through some tough times and manage to pull through.

"Axl's right, ever since we met all of in this table, ("minus Gate"), have treated each other as a family. So no matter where we are, or what happens to us, we are family."

Everybody agreed to what X said as they all lifted their drinks and toasted.

"Emergency! Emergency! All maverick hunters report to the command center immediately! Emergency! Emergency!"

"What the hell?!" Cursed Zero.

"Uh oh!" Said Axl.

"You heard em team! Let's move out!" Ordered X as everyone ran toward the command center.

Location: Maverick Hunter Command Center.

As everybody entered the command center and took their positions, commander Signas spoke what's happening.

"Maverick Hunters, we got a situation. We have a dangerous maverick that appeared out of the blue."

Everyone was shocked when they heard that a dangerous maverick has appeared from nowhere. Usually it was a not too aggressive maverick, but a dangerous is a rare one.

Commander Signas continued.

"Yes, I know. It's a shock, but we have job to do. We tend to do it. Operator, do we have the location and ID?"

"Working on it commander." Said Alia as she and the others typed down on the keyboards. After a moment of typing "Commander we have the location, the attack is being held in downtown, but what's strange is that the identity of maverick in our system does not exist!"

"Interesting, a reploid that doesn't exists in the system. Doesn't matter, approach the maverick with extreme caution! X, Zero, Axl! You know what to do!"

"Yes commander!" Said the three maverick hunters.

As they were about to leave.

"Zero! Be careful." Said Layer.

"Will do, just keep me informed from here." Said Zero as his wife nodded.

"Axl you be careful out there you hear? If you get hurt I'm gonna finish where that maverick left off!" Said Palette.

"Heh, don't need to tell me twice! I got this!" Said Axl as he gave a quick salute to his partner.

"Alia?" Said X as he called her name

"Just do your job X, I'll do what I can from here." Said Alia as she just kept her eyes on her computer monitor.

X gave let out a sigh of annoyance as she didn't even care about him anymore except Gate. He just ignored her and followed the others.

Location: Downtown.

As X and his team teleported near the area, they looked what was around them.

"What the?! You guys seeing what I'm seeing?!" Said Zero.

"I'm glad I'm not the only one who sees this, I thought it was a teleporter malfunction." Said Axl.

"I see it too, everything around us is frozen in time!" Said X.

It was true, everything around them such as cars, trees, mailboxes, even pieces of destroyed buildings are frozen!

"X, Zero, Axl! Do you read?" Said Alia.

"We read you loud and clear Alia, go ahead." Said Zero.

"If my readings are correct it seems that everything around you frozen! But In reality it's actually slowing down at an extreme rate."

"Seems like our maverick can control time, that explains it." Said Axl.

"Thanks for the info Alia, we're proceeding the mission. Alright team, let's move out!"

After a while of searching for the maverick, they finally found it. The maverick appeared to be small and colored purple, with a clock on his chest and two gold alarm bells on top of his head.

"This is X, we spotted the target."

"Great work, what's it's status?"

"Well...apparently it's doing nothing. Almost as if it's waiting."

"Understood approach with extreme caution, if this maverick can control time, it can use it against you."

"Roger. Alright, let's go and do this carefully." Said X as he summoned his X buster, Axl pulled out his dual pistols, and Zero activated his Z saber.

The trio walked toward the maverick slowly with weapon pointed towards it. As they got close.

"Hmph, you're late! I grew tired of waiting." Said the maverick.

Hearing this surprised the team.

"Uh, sorry to disappoint. Us maverick hunters have to take precautions to handle situations such as this." Said X.

"So let's make this easy maverick scum, surrender now or this will get messy." Said Zero.

"Or don't since you knew we were coming! It makes things more fun." Said Axl.

"Hmph, I don't know what's this maverick business is. But I will tell you this, my name is Time Man, and I can do whatever I want, whenever I want. Who ever gets in my way, will be destroyed!"

"Tch, sounds like maverick talk to me." Said Zero.

"For that, we need to stop you. Whatever it takes!" Said Axl.

"I was hoping we could discuss this peacefully, but it appears that's out of the question."

"Enough! I grow tired of this! You robots are annoying already, I believe our conversion is over. Because your time is up!" Said Time Man as he prepared himself to attack.

To be continuedâ€|

Author's Note: There we go! This chapter is up! I was going to include the fight, but I'm going out of town for a few days so I'm going to leave this here and hope you guys enjoy. Did you like the couple's that was introduced? More might be on the way, and I hope you agree. Leave a comment on what you think so far and see if you want more, if not, I will still make more! Hahaha! Sorry. Anyway, see ya next time! Oh and one final thing, Ichi is the name of the pink haired female navigator that appears in the Megaman x psp remake and in the ova. She was never given a name so I gave that name. Ichi is the Japanese word for one, since the megaman x is the first Megaman x game, duh, plus, in the Megaman wiki, it's said that her design was somewhat based on Nana's design in the Megaman x command mission game. Her Japanese name, Nana, is the number seven. I thought it would be pretty cool to include that and give the pink haired navigator that name since it's somewhat appropriate. And yes I looked it up.

3. Chapter 3

Chapter 3

Time Man began his attack by summoning time daggers, and threw them at X and his team. The three reploids dodged the attack as they scatter to take cover and attack back.

As the daggers came towards them, X and Axl shot deflected the daggers with their buster shots, while Zero, sliced them down. Seeing this gave Time Man a new strategy to deal with his enemies as he threw more daggers, however, these were slower than the ones earlier. This caught Axl's attention as he saw this as an opportunity to attack.

"What kind of attack is that?! I got this one guys!"

"Axl wait!" Said X, but it was too late. Axl dashed towards Time Man and A-transed into a reploid leopard to gain the upper hand.

"Fool." Said Time Man as he lifted his hand and used his power towards Axl.

Getting, Axl's speed suddenly slowed down until he could barely move.

"Wha?! Why am I slow!"

"Hmph, fool. Haven't you been paying attention? There's a reason why my name is Time Man!"

As one of the slow daggers touched Axl, he felt pain hitting across his chest. Time Man then snapped his fingers and Axl's speed returned to normal and the attack sent him back a couple of feet away.

Seeing this shocked everyone, and in hunters base.

"AXL!" shouted Palette as she saw her partner got hurt.

"Oh no." Said Layer.

"X! Zero! I've just analyzes Time Man's time ability." Said Alia. "Time Man can control time, but apparently not all of time. Meaning he can only control the area he chooses, or around him. So keep your distance from him."

"Roger! Thanks for the info. Zero, help Axl while I distract Time Man!" Said X as he fired a few buster shots at Time Man.

Time Man threw a few time daggers at the shots and managed to stop them, but felt the hit of a charge shot that knocked him back against some rubble. The small robot came out of the rubble to attack again, but heard a roar above him and saw Zero ready to slice him.

"This is what you get for attacking my friends!"

Seeing this, Time Man smiled.

"Idiot."

The small robot snapped his fingers once again and froze Zero in place.

"D-Damn it!"

"Haven't you been paying attention? There's a reason-"

"Axl bullets!"

"Huh?"

*bang*bang*bang*

"Gah!"

"Pay back you time user maverick!" shouted Axl as Time Man felt into the rubble once more, giving Zero freedom from Time Man's and retreat towards his team.

"Great work Axl, how you holding up?" Said X.

"Nothing but a flesh wound, and a visit to the doctor will fix me up."

"A flesh wound?!" shouted Palette from the communicator. "More like an injury! That slow time dagger packed quite a punch! You need be more careful!"

"Alright, alright. Can't I at least sound cool and tough for once?"

"No."

"Sigh"

"Shut it you two, save your arguments until after the mission!" Said Zero.

"Sorry."

"Grrr...you...youâ€|"

X and the others turned to see Time Man coming out from the rubble and appeared to be damaged.

"Time Man!"

"You robots are really getting on my nerves!"

"What's the deal calling with Time Man us robots?" Said Zero.

"Well think about it Zero, we are robots! Except we are called reploids since we have free will."

"Shut up Axl."

"Shuting up."

"Time Man, enough! Stop this fighting, your too damaged from that attack! Surrender peacefully and you will not be harmed any further." Said X as he reasoned with Time Man in hopes of ending this fight quickly.

"Never, I will destroy you all! No matter what I was originally created for, I will destroy! RAAAAAAWR!"

Time Man spread his arms open and forze time in the area, including X and the others. With that, Time Man threw more time daggers. X and his team felt the attacks as they kept coming. With time now unfrozen, The three reploids fell on the ground in pain as they barely stood up to fight again.

"D-Damn it! For a small dangerous maverick, he sure packs quite a punch!" Said Zero as he carefully stood up.

"I don't think I can take much more of thisâ€|" said Axl as his wounds from earlier worsen than before.

"Such power, how can this reploid have this much?" Said X.

"You can thank Dr. Light for that." Said Time Man.

"What?!" Said all three reploids.

"You heard correctly, Dr. Light was creator. Not just me, but along with other robots known as 'robot masters', who were created to help humanity without placing them into danger, I was intended as an experiment for controlling time. As for the others, i don't care. After our creation, a mad scientist stole and used us for his personal gain. Eventually we were defeated by a fighting robot also created by Dr. Light, whose name is forgotten after being sealed away for many years and seen as a huge threat. Now I'm all that is left, the last of the Dr. Light's creation."

Hearing Time Man's words were a big shock, he was the last creation by Dr. Light? How? Most of his creations were either destroyed or lost. Howeverâ€|

"So, Dr. Light created you too? To help humanity?" Said X.

"Yes that's correct. Did he created you too? Who are you?"

X carfully stood up and said.

"My name is X, Megaman X. Dr. Light created me as a robot to bring justice to the world and help humanity bring closer with with robots who are now named reploids Together."

Hearing X's words surprised Time Man as this blue robot was also the good doctor's last creation?! How long was he and the others were sealed away? What has happened along the way?! Waitâ€|

"Megaman? Did you say your name was Megaman?"

"Yes that's right, however I go by the name X instead. It's kind of a mouthful if you say my entire name, so just call me X."

"Megaman...Megaman...MEGAMAN!"

"Huh?!"

"RAAAAAAWR!" Shouted Time Man in rage as he charged towards X.

Seeing this X and than others barely managed to dodge the small robot and defended themselves.

"Geez, what the back is the deal with this guy?" Said Axl.

"What did you do to him to crazy like that?" said Zero.

"How should I know? I've never met him until now!" Said X.

"MEGAMAN!"

"Can we deal with this later?!"

Time Man continued to attack with more time daggers and threw them towards the three reploids. X and his team shot and sliced the daggers much as they could until they stopped coming, and Time Man charged once more.

"Axl, Time Man is only focused on X. Let's make him focus on us instead!" Said Zero.

"Fine, if he damages me more, you owe me one!"

"Fine. X, just sit this one out for now."

Zero and Axl charged towards Time Man once more and hope to end this fight now. As they got close, Time Man froze them and passed through them.

"X!" Said Zero and Axl.

"MEAGAMAN!"

Pow

Time Man felt pain in his chest, he slowly looked down and saw a huge burning hole on his chest. He looked up and saw X just a few inches close to him with his buster pointed towards him.

"Megaâ€|Manâ€|"

"I'm sorry Time Man, you left me no choice."

"You fool...what have you doneâ€|"

"Huh?"

Without another word, Time Man exploded and a portal appeared in his place, sucking everything towards it!

"X! ZERO! AXL! GET OUT OF THERE! OUR REPORTS SAY THAT PORTAL IT'S A DOOR TO TIME AND SPACE! IF YOU GET SUCKED IN IT'S ALL OVER FOR YOU!" shouted Signas.

Being blown away from the blast, X a shoot up and took cover from the portal's gravitational pull.

"Roger, transporting out now."

"X wait! Said Layer. "Zero and Axl are still frozen! If you teleport now they will be sucked in! Please save them!"

"I understand." Said X as he carefully ran towards his friends without being sucked in "Zero! Axl! Are you alright?"

"We will be if you get us out of here!" Said Zero.

"Alright, just hang on."

As X grabbed Zero and Axl, both wouldn't budge at all! X tried again and again but it was no use! During this time, the time portal's vortex was getting stronger by each second! X had no choice.

"Zero, Axl. I'm sorry."

"What are you talking about?" Said Zero.

"I barely have enough energy to transport you two back to hunter base, without me."

Hearing this shocked the two hunters as they couldn't believe what X was saying.

"X no! Don't say that! We can find another way! We've been through tough situations before, we can do it again!" Said Zero.

"That's right! It's not the same without you! You're our leader! We're family!"

"I know, there's no other way. Just as I said before, no matter what happens we're a family. Zero, take care of everybody."

"X!"

With that, X grabbed his friends and teleported them back to base. Leaving him behind. He then felt the gravitational pull and knew it was the end. X relaxed himself and closed his eyes as he was completely pulled and sucked into the time portal.

Location: Hunter base.

Zero and Axl arrived at the base unfrozen and fell on the floor. Everybody rushed to the two hunters and checked for injuries.

Layer was the first to reach her husband and said.

"Zero! Are you alright?!"

"Ugh...X...Where's X?!"

Layer said nothing as she and everybody knew what happened to him.

"No...it...it can't be!" Said Zero as he could believe what she meant. He then looked at the screen where the battle took place and saw nothing but what appears to be Time Man's chest time clock. There was nothing no trace of what's left of X. He was gone.

"No...X...you...can't...you just...you just can'tâ€|"

"Zeroâ€|" said Layer as she couldn't do anything but see her husband cry.

"X...X!"

"Where am I? What happened? The last thing I remember was...that's right. I teleported Zero and Axl back to Hunter base. I hope they made it safely."

â€|

"Funny, this isn't the first time I died and sacrificed myself to save the lives of others. Kind of ironic I would die somewhat the same way...and since I'm dead, I wonder where I will end up next?"

UTILITY PROGRAM HAS BEEN UPGRADED.

"Huh?"

HARD DISK CUSTOMIZATION COMMENCING.

"What?!"

Zap

"GAHHHHH! THIS FEELING! IT CAN'T BE! THIS IS JUST LIKE-"

Zap

"GAAAAAAAAAAAAAH!"

"Ugh...what happened...my head...feels like the time when I celebrated Zero's bachelor party in Vegasâ€|"

X stood up and looked checked himself for any injuries.

"No damage. That's good. The only problem is that where in the world am I? Why do i feel so weird? I haven't felt anything like this since...since I've been a...a navi!"

Looked around and eventually saw a familiar figure on a bed, sleeping! it was a kid, wearing a white longsleeve short with an orange vest, black shorts, and a blue headband! X couldn't believe it! He actually couldn't believe it! That kid on the bed, its-

"Lanâ€|"

To be continuedâ€|

Authors Note: It has begun! Let the true series begin! With X/Megaman still looking as the same. Armored of course. Why? Who doesn't want Megaman fighting in X's armor! Even though he's still X but still as Megaman at the sametime. Don't get it? Neither do I! But you I know what I mean right? Anyway keep an eye out for the next chapter soon. See ya next time!
